San Leandro Players Theatre Company presents "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" by Tennessee Williams, directed by Matthew Travisano.

The show opens on Saturday, Sept. 29, and runs Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. through Oct. 28. Tickets are $20 general; $15 for students, TBA members and seniors.

Performances are at the San Leandro Museum Auditorium, 320 West Estudillo Ave, San Leandro, just block east of the San Leandro BART station.

For reservations call 895-2573, or order tickets online at www.slplayers.org.

As with all SLP shows, the company offers a Perpetual Flex-Pass, which can be purchased at any time and is good for any three shows. Details can be found on the website at www.slplayers.org or by calling 895-2573.

One of the most celebrated plays by America's most celebrated playwright, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof will be presented in the round, the perfect vantage point from which to watch Maggie and Brick battle over the ghosts of the past, featuring Daniel Dickinson, Barry Eitel, Terry Guillory, Sylvia Hathaway, Jack Murga, J.F. Nichols, Jill Schmitz, and Alex Skinner.
