She was born in Rockford, Illinois in 1913 to Joseph and Vincentina Salomone. The family moved to Sophia, West Virginia and then Monterey, Calif. She was the eldest of 7 siblings. Lena helped her father with his meat market and grocery store and learned that business well. She also learned to cook, clean and care for her brothers and sisters, at the side of her dear mother whom she loved until the end. Lena's brothers, Angelo, Al and Philip Salomone; and sister, Mary Russo, preceded her in death. She is survived by her sister, Florence Bommarito; brother, Jim Salomone of Monterey; son, Rosario (Ross), and his wife, Laureen, of Castro Valley; daughter, Vinnie Thoms, and son-in-law, Harry Thoms, of San Diego; 5 grandchildren; and 5 great-grandchildren. She was a homemaker and wife to Frank Bausone who also preceded her in death. The two met at a USO dance during the early years of WWII. Lena waited for Frank's return from WWII in the South Pacific and then they were married. They relocated to San Leandro in 1954. Lena resided there until recently when she could no longer live alone. She is remembered for her wonderful Italian home cooking, never raising her voice, and continual silent strength. She loved entertaining at home, playing pinochle and chocolate cake. Her unconditional love has been a constant reminder of what our family values are. A Celebration of Life will be held in the fall of this year.
