

The Marina Inn on San Francisco Bay and Horatio's Restaurant held a Mardi Gras Celebration on Tuesday, Feb. 21, and plan to make it an annual event.

The hotel's guests, business community and local residents were treated to beads and masks for a fun and festive time on Fat Tuesday on the bay.

Guests had a special menu prepared by Chef Ryan included bacon wrapped alligator eggs, peppers stuffed with prawns and cream cheese, Andouille sausage gumbo and fried-chicken poor-boy sliders.

Raffle prizes included night stays at The Marina Inn and rounds of golf donated by Monarch Bay Golf Course (across the street from the hotel and Horatio's), massage gift certificates

Hotel, Restaurant Celebrate Mardi Gras at the Marina

Thursday, 01 March 2012 12:44

donated by Joie with Hairtrap, Shell gift cards, wine, and delicious appetizers donated by Horatio's.

They also had $5 Mardi Gras drink specials including Hurricanes, Blue Flame and Mardi-Gria's.

CAPTION: The Mardi Gras celebration at the San Leandro Marina included Marina Inn General Manager Audrey Velasquez, along with Jenelle Consaul and Janise Dawson.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE MARINA INN