The Manor Reno Winners Bowling League is one of the largest organized bowling leagues in the country. There are forty-four teams – 220 bowlers – who bowl Monday and Tuesday nights at Manor Bowl.

Manor Bowlers Charity Drive

Last year they decided to come up with an idea to help some families in the community during the holidays and they decided to team up with St. Vincent dePaul Society through St. Felicitas Church and raised $600.

This year, through generous donations from league members and a contribution from Manor Bowl, they were able to present St. Vincent dePaul with $800 in Target gift cards.
