

The San Leandro Library presents an opportunity for teens to work with Bay Area artist Malik Seneferu and create mixed media art work in honor of the Library's Big Read of "Their Eyes Were Watching God" by Zora Neale Hurston.

Students in grades 6 to 12 will learn various art techniques while exploring the creative process and getting an introduction to the life and work of Hurston. The students' art will be displayed at the library alongside Malik's own painting.

The four-day workshop will be held Jan. 19, Jan. 26, Feb. 2, and Feb. 9, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Main Library, 300 Estudillo Ave. in San Leandro.
